

Annual School Counseling and Support Plan

Principal: DANIEL, CARA

Director/Lead Counselor: Ashley Asselta

DANIEL, CARA

Cara Daniel
Date

Ashley Asselta
Date

9/24/25
Date

August

*ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
Review school-wide data from prior year (attendance, discipline, GPA); Identify at-risk populations.	(2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	Counselors review last year's academic, attendance, and behavioral data to identify at-risk students and set intervention priorities.
Develop counseling plan	(3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that	Align program to SIP goals.
Meet with Admin, MTSS, and sss team to review referral pathways	(4). Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination. Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the	Strengthen collaborative efforts
Introduction Assembly – counselor role, services, and access information	(5). Counseling Services. Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of	Counselors will introduce themselves, explain how students can access counseling services, and provide an overview of academic and social/emotional supports.
Review course schedules and follow up with students missing graduation requirements	(6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the	Begin early credit checks and academic advising for on-track graduation
Participate in Open House to share counseling services	(4). Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination. Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the	Counselors attend Open House to introduce services, share contact information, and collaborate with families and staff.
Assist students with schedule concerns and course level changes	(9). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the	Meet with students requesting schedule reviews to ensure course placement aligns with graduation goals and academic success.
Participate in MTSS/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data-	(2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	Counselors participate in MTSS/RTI to review student performance data (D&F Report) and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals.
College & Career Readiness	(1). Professional, Legal, and Ethical Expectations. School counselors act ethically and according to professional standards to promote the academic	Introduce BRACE services during orientations and open house
Orientation overview	(2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	Analyze prior year FAFSA completion, scholarship awards, and college acceptance rates to set annual benchmarks.
Review postsecondary outcome data	(7). Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors	Provide workshops on SAT/ACT testing, including registration, fee waivers, and prep resources.
Career Development and Postsecondary Planning
Life Skills & Wellness To identify high school students experiencing unmet basic needs such as food insecurity and unstable housing. Foster healthy peer and adult relationships by modeling and teaching empathy, conflict resolution, and Help students build coping tools to manage academic pressure and personal stress, especially during peak	High-LSW A: Students will assess their personal strengths, limitations, values, and interests to set meaningful academic and career goals. High-LSW B: Students will build and sustain healthy relationships through effective communication, empathy, and conflict-resolution High-LSW C: Students will develop the ability to persist through challenges, adapt to change, and maintain a positive outlook in pursuit of	Meet individually with students identified through referrals or data to assess basic needs and connect them with school or community resources to support stability and academic Facilitate brief chats in the hallway and during lunch to model communication skills. Offer drop-in "Stress Management Tips" mini-conversations during lunch.

September

Kids of Character: Cooperation

*ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
Review counseling procedures Review academic performance Attend grade-level PLC meetings to offer support on student concerns Maintain counselor availability before school, during lunch, and after school for student support Assist students with completing Dual Enrollment applications for spring term Support students in interpreting their graduation status and planning academic steps based on that data. Share monthly counseling focus in the school newsletter Participate in MTSS/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data.	(1). Professional, Legal, and Ethical Expectations. School counselors act ethically and according to professional standards to promote the academic (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (4). Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination. Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the (5). Counseling Services. Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of (6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the (7). Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors (3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	Counselors will meet as a team to review internal practices, update documentation procedures (e.g., notes and referrals), and ensure alignment with district policies Use D & F report data and teacher input to identify patterns in academic risk, absenteeism, or SEL needs. Collaborate with staff to offer input on academic, SEL, or behavioral concerns. Counselors are consistently available during non-instructional times to ensure students can access academic or SEL support outside of class hours. Counselors provide support to eligible students as they complete spring Dual Enrollment applications, review GP/Atest eligibility, and submit required documentation Counselors meet with Juniors and seniors identified as off-track to review their Graduation Requirements tab in FOCUS and discuss next steps to get back on track. Counselors will include a short section in the school newsletter to highlight the counseling focus: Start Strong! Counselors participate in MTSS/RTI to review student performance data (D&F Report) and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals.
College & Career Readiness Launch senior tracking system Tips on College Night Transcript reviews with seniors	(2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (7). Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors (6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the	Begin tracking FAFSA ID creation, scholarship submissions, and college application progress. College Night presentation for students and families that provides an overview of postsecondary options Verify graduation requirements and eligibility for Bright Futures and other scholarships.
Life Skills & Wellness Help students reflect on their personal values, strengths, and academic goals as they begin the school year. Promote healthy peer and staff relationships from the start of the year. Build student confidence in adapting to new routines, schedules, or expectations.	High-LSW A: Students will assess their personal strengths, limitations, values, and interests to set meaningful academic and career goals. High-LSW B: Students will build and sustain healthy relationships through effective communication, empathy, and conflict-resolution High-LSW C: Students will develop the ability to persist through challenges, adapt to change, and maintain a positive outlook in pursuit of	"Back-to-School Check-in" conversations during hallway transitions or lunch - brief discussions about what students are looking forward to or working on this year. "Name + Face + One Thing" Challenge: Informally connect with students and staff, learning names and one strength or interest per student by the end of September. Identify students who seem overwhelmed and offer encouragement or brief check-ins.

October

Kids of Character: Responsibility

*ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
Review and organize counseling documentation procedures Use Quarter 1 progress reports to flag academically at-risk students Share October counseling focus in the school newsletter Review academic and behavior concerns with staff Conduct informal hallway or lunch check-ins with students Generate and distribute senior graduation status letters Collaborate with the Career Dual Enrollment (CDE) counselor to support student success Participate in MTSS/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data-	(1). Professional, Legal, and Ethical Expectations. School counselors act ethically and according to professional standards to promote the academic (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (4). Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination. Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the (5). Counseling Services. Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of (6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the (7). Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	Counselors review documentation to ensure they are current, and in compliance with district guidelines. Review D/F grades to start a working list of students needing academic support or follow-up. Counselors will include a short section in the school newsletter to highlight the counseling focus. Check-in and Recharge Counselors participate in grade level PLC and MTSS/RTI to review student performance data and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals. Counselors engage in check-ins with students during lunch, before school, or in the hallway to promote visibility, build rapport, and encourage students to seek support when needed. Counselors prepare and distribute letters to 12th grade students indicating whether they are on track to meet graduation requirements. Letters are based on transcript reviews and help Counselors will partner with the CDE counselor to support students by discussing available resources, reinforcing resilience, and encouraging students to seek help when needed. Counselors participate in MTSS/RTI to review student performance data (D&F Report) and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals.
College & Career Readiness Month College & Career Readiness Month Early application advising FAFSA completion checks	(3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	Promote exploration of multiple postsecondary pathways. Counsel seniors on regular and rolling college decisions. Monitor early FAFSA completion rates and identify student groups needing targeted outreach.
Life Skills & Wellness Support students in identifying what's working and what needs improvement academically and emotionally. Strengthen student communication and empathy through social-emotional learning moments. Strengthen student communication and empathy through social-emotional learning moments.	High-LSW A: Students will assess their personal strengths, limitations, values, and interests to set meaningful academic and career goals. High-LSW B: Students will build and sustain healthy relationships through effective communication, empathy, and conflict-resolution High-LSW C: Students will develop the ability to persist through challenges, adapt to change, and maintain a positive outlook in pursuit of	Hold one-on-one conversations asking: "What's going well so far? What's one thing you want to change before next quarter?" Passing Period and lunch talks focused on topics like peer relationships. Student information about stress management, positive affirmations or grounding techniques.

November

Kids of Character: Citizenship

* ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
Review transcript status for newly enrolled students Use current grade reports to identify students in EOC-tested courses who are at risk of failing, and follow up with Maintain a visible counseling presence by engaging with students informally before school, during lunch and after Collaborate with teachers to monitor student academic and behavior trends Observe student behavior during high-traffic times (arrival, lunch, class changes) to monitor signs of social-emotional Check in with students flagged for academic concerns such as course failures, probation status, or low GPAs Engage students in future-planning conversations during academic check-ins and lunch duty asking about career Share monthly counseling focus in the school newsletter Participate in MTS/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data-	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Professional, Legal, and Ethical Expectations. School counselors act ethically and according to professional standards to promote the academic Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination. Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the Counseling Services. Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling 	Check FOCUS and CUM to ensure all transcripts have been received and documented; follow up on missing records to ensure accurate credit tracking and compliance with graduation Counselors proactively review academic data from core content areas to flag students who are underperforming. Connect students with tutoring options before semester exams. Counselors spend time in common areas during unstructured parts of the day to build rapport, answer student questions, and encourage help-seeking behavior in a relaxed Counselors maintain open communication with instructional staff to monitor student progress. Teachers are encouraged to share concerns about academic performance or Counselors support student well-being by monitoring daily routines for signs of SEL need. Informal check-ins based on observed patterns help de-escalate issues early and allow Counselors promote academic success by initiating supportive follow-up with students experiencing academic challenges. These check-ins create space for reflection, problem- Counselors use routine interactions to promote career exploration and long-term planning. Help students connect their current academic experience to future goals and reinforce the Manage the Stress Tip: Between tests, holidays, and projects, November gets hectic. Take care of yourself - sleep, breaks, and balance matter. Counselors participate in MTS/RTI to review student performance data (D&F Report) and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals.
College & Career Readiness Early outcomes review Tips for ACT ASVAB Test for Juniors and Seniors	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors 	Track applications and align to post-secondary goals. ACT Study and test taking strategies. Have students take the ASVAB as a means of career exploration.
Life Skills & Wellness Encourage students to reflect on their academic performance and build motivation before the semester Promote gratitude, kindness, and emotional connection among students and staff. Support students managing stress from school, home, or the upcoming holidays.	High- LSW A: Students will assess their personal strengths, limitations, values, and interests to set meaningful academic and career goals. High- LSW B: Students will build and sustain healthy relationships through effective communication, empathy, and conflict-resolution High- LSW C: Students will develop the ability to persist through challenges, adapt to change, and maintain a positive outlook in pursuit of	Halfway check-ins or quick individual chats to ask students what academic or personal goal they want to meet before winter break. Lunch or hallway conversations encouraging students to recognize a peer or staff member who made a difference. Student information about stress management, positive affirmations or grounding techniques.

December

Kids of Character: Kindness

*ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
Review and align counseling documentation practices with district guidelines. Participate in MTS/SR/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data-based and academic support before EOC exams. Reach out individually to students to recommend tutoring and academic support before EOC exams. Engage in communication with teachers to share updates about student needs and concerns. Monitor patterns in attendance and behavior to identify students who may benefit from proactive support or transitions and academic supports. Meet with students on academic probation to discuss term transitions and academic supports. Support postsecondary readiness by encouraging students to explore work-related interests and skills through accounts to Common App for transcript requests and Share monthly counseling focus in the school newsletter Participate in MTS/SR/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data-	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1). Professional, Legal, and Ethical Expectations. School counselors act ethically and according to professional standards to promote the academic (2). Data-Driven Planning- Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (4). Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination. Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the (5). Counseling Services. Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of (6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the (7). Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors (7). Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors (7). Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling 	Counselors maintain accurate records to ensure accountability and compliance with professional norms. Use current data from FOCUS and MTS/SR/RTI to target students for academic check-ins, counseling sessions, or parent outreach Counselors review D/F report to identify students needing support before EOC exam and encourage after-school tutoring. Counselors use everyday interactions to collaborate with teachers. Informal updates help ensure students' academic and/or emotional needs are addressed proactively. Counselors review data in Focus to flag students showing early signs of disengagement. Identified students are discussed with MTS/SR/RTI. Support is coordinated through parent Counselors help students develop recovery plans and adjust goals by reviewing grades and course progress, ensuring a focused and supportive transition into the term. Counselors promote long-term success by initiating casual conversations that connect school performance to future goals, helping students build awareness of career pathways. Counselors support students' postsecondary planning by ensuring they complete technical step needed for college access. By walking seniors through the Xello-Common App Finish Strong - Final exams and EOCs are coming. Use your time wisely and don't forget: counselors can connect you with study resources. Counselors participate in MTS/SR/RTI to review student performance data (D&F Report) and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals.
College & Career Readiness Midyear progress analysis Holiday scholarship drive ASVAB Test Follow-up	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (7). Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors 	Report FAFSA completion and scholarship application numbers to administrators. Promote available scholarships before winter break. ASVAB results and review for career exploration.
Life Skills & Wellness Help students reflect on their semester progress and identify personal and academic growth areas before break. Promote kindness and gratitude before the winter holidays. Support students who may experience stress or instability during the holidays.	High-LSW A: Students will assess their personal strengths, limitations, values, and interests to set meaningful academic and career goals. High-LSW B: Students will build and sustain healthy relationships through effective communication, empathy, and conflict-resolution High-LSW C: Students will develop the ability to persist through challenges, adapt to change, and maintain a positive outlook in pursuit of	Midyear check-ins with students in the hall or lunchroom, asking: "What are you proud of this semester?" or "What's one thing you want to improve next term?" Brief hallway conversations with students about how they're staying connected to friends and family over break. Identify students who may need extra emotional support or referrals before break.

January

Kids of Character: Respect

*ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
Review and align counseling documentation practices with district guidelines. Review Term 1 failures and coordinate with students needing to recover credits through FLYS. Review first Term grade trends and identify students at risk of not meeting credit requirements. Collaborate MTSS/RTI team to review Term 1 academic data, course failures, and behavior patterns to identify students Check-in with students identified through first term concerns (academic decline and chronic absences) to offer Begin-of-Term Academic Check-ins Share monthly counseling focus in the school newsletter Participate in MTSS/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data-	(1). Professional, Legal, and Ethical Expectations: School counselors act ethically and according to professional standards to promote the academic (2). Data-Driven Planning: Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (3). School Counseling Program: Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (4). Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination: Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the (5). Counseling Services: Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of (6). Academic Advising and Planning: Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the (3). School Counseling Program: Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (2). Data-Driven Planning: Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	Counselors maintain accurate records to ensure accountability and compliance with professional norms Counselors analyze final grade reports to identify students who failed core courses. This data guides individualized planning, including FLYS registration support and academic Counselors analyze Term 1 failures and patterns across grade levels to inform targeted academic interventions, credit recovery options, and second semester support plans Counselors coordinate with the MTSS/RTI team to flag students for intervention. This ensures that struggling students are connected with targeted supports, tutoring, or SEL during the first term. These check-ins focus on emotional well-being, motivation, and Review first term grades and help students reflect on what worked and what didn't. Guide them in setting academic goals and identifying helpful resources (like peer tutoring, study New Semester, Fresh Start: This term is a clean slate. Let's make a plan together and start strong. Counselors participate in MTSS/RTI to review student performance data (D&F Report) and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals.
College & Career Readiness FAFSA update review Junior conferences Military recruiter sessions	(2). Data-Driven Planning: Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (6). Academic Advising and Planning: Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the (7). Career Development and Postsecondary Planning: Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors	Track FAFSA completions and plan targeted outreach for students who have not filed. Begin junior advising for course selection and postsecondary planning. Coordinate recruiter visits to inform students about service options.
Life Skills & Wellness Support students in identifying strengths and setting focused academic and personal goals for the new term. Strengthen student-teacher communication as routines resume. Help students re-establish routines and build resilience after winter break.	High- LSW A: Students will assess their personal strengths, limitations, values, and interests to set meaningful academic and career goals. High- LSW B: Students will build and sustain healthy relationships through effective communication, empathy, and conflict-resolution High- LSW C: Students will develop the ability to persist through challenges, adapt to change, and maintain a positive outlook in pursuit of	Conduct quick "New Semester Check-ins" with students individually or in small groups during lunch or transitions. Collaborate with teachers to identify students struggling to re-engage after break. Student information about stress management, positive affirmations or grounding techniques.

February

Kids of Character: Honesty

*ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
Share monthly counseling focus in the school newsletter Attendance Review & Intervention Planning Support Informed Course Selection for 2026–2027 Lunchtime Drop-In Counseling Mid-Year Reflection & Goal Reset Sessions Participate in MTSS/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data-	(3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (4). Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination. Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the (5). Counseling Services. Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of (6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	"Set a Small Goal" Pick one goal this month - big or small - and stick to it! Finish an assignment early, raise one quiz grade, or ask one more question in class. Collaborate with the MTSS team and school social worker to review Semester 1 attendance, behavior, and grade data. Identify at-risk students and develop support strategies - such as Use academic performance and graduation requirements to guide students through course selection. Help ensure schedules reflect appropriate rigor and student goals by reviewing Available at lunch for students to ask questions, de-stress, or talk through challenges. Promote a supportive, low-pressure environment where students can access counseling Hold brief one-on-one check-ins with students to review academic performance, reset academic goals for the second semester, and discuss strategies for improvement, Counselors participate in MTSS/RTI to review student performance data (D&F Report) and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals.
College & Career Readiness FAFSA drive Small group sessions Tips on college night	(3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (5). Counseling Services. Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of (6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the	Advertise FAFSA nights to increase completion rates before priority deadlines. Counsel seniors weighing multiple college or career offers. College Night presentation for students and families that provides an overview of postsecondary options.
Life Skills & Wellness Encourage students to reflect on progress toward personal and academic goals. Strengthen peer relationships and connection to the school community. Help students manage academic stress and prepare for testing season.	High- LSW A: Students will assess their personal strengths, limitations, values, and interests to set meaningful academic and career goals. High- LSW B: Students will build and sustain healthy relationships through effective communication, empathy, and conflict-resolution High- LSW C: Students will develop the ability to persist through challenges, adapt to change, and maintain a positive outlook in pursuit of	Check-ins during lunch and class transitions Share information with students about social stress, relationships, or peer conflicts. Share "Stress Tips for Testing Season"

March

Kids of Character: Self Control

*ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
Share monthly counseling focus in the school newsletter Team-Based Student Support Meetings Open Gym, Open Minds Review academic performance Check in with students flagged for academic concerns such as course failures, probation status, or low GPAs Participate in MTSS/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data-	(3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (4). Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination. Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the (5). Counseling Services. Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	March – Test Prep = Confidence - Big tests are coming, but you don't have to face them alone. We've got tools, tips, and calm strategies to help you feel ready. Collaborate with MTSS/RTI to review academic progress and behavioral trends. Host lunchtime open gym sessions as a wellness break for students. Create a supportive space for movement, social connection, and informal counselor check-ins. Use D & F report data and teacher input to identify patterns in academic risk, absenteeism, or SEL needs. Counselors promote academic success by initiating supportive follow-up with students experiencing academic challenges. These check-ins create space for reflection, problem-solving, and support. Counselors participate in MTSS/RTI to review student performance data (D&F Report) and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals.
College & Career Readiness Acceptance trend review Scholarship workshops Career interest inventories	(2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (7). Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors	Analyze admissions decisions to identify support gaps. Conduct sessions to help students apply for spring scholarship opportunities. Administer career assessments for sophomores/juniors.
Life Skills & Wellness Reinforce student motivation and engagement as testing season approaches. Promote healthy peer relationships and reduce interpersonal conflict through proactive skill-building. Help students build resilience during mid-semester stress and testing demands.	High- LSW A: Students will assess their personal strengths, limitations, values, and interests to set meaningful academic and career goals. High- LSW B: Students will build and sustain healthy relationships through effective communication, empathy, and conflict-resolution High- LSW C: Students will develop the ability to persist through challenges, adapt to change, and maintain a positive outlook in pursuit of	Conduct "Motivation Monday" hallway check-ins with positive affirmations. Share information friendship, empathy, and resolving conflict peacefully. Meet with students who need extra support.

April

Kids of Character: Tolerance

*ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
Share monthly counseling focus in the school newsletter Review and align counseling documentation practices with district guidelines. Meet with students in EOC and AP courses that need extra support. Academic Progress Check-ins Check ins with Teachers & Students Drop-in Support Sessions Participate in MTSS/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data-	(3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (1). Professional, Legal, and Ethical Expectations. School counselors act ethically and according to professional standards to promote the academic (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the (4). Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination. Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the (5). Counseling Services. Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of (2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	"Refocus & Recharge" Spring is a great time to reset. Take a breath, recheck your goals, and knock out the rest of the semester one step at a time. Counselors maintain accurate records to ensure accountability and compliance with professional norms Review academic data to identify trends, prioritize student needs, and inform individualized interventions before EOCs, AP, and final exams. Meet with students to discuss academic standing, provide strategies for finishing the year strong, and offer guidance on promotion requirements. Conduct informal hallway check-ins during transitions to gather quick input from staff and students about academic and emotional readiness for testing and flag any emerging Host open-door lunch meetings in the gym where students can decompress, ask questions, or receive calm encouragement ahead of testing. Counselors participate in MTSS/RTI to review student performance data (DAF Report) and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals.
College & Career Readiness Bright Futures completion tracking College Decision Week prep Underclassmen pathway planning	(2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (6). Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the	Verify completion of Bright Futures requirements and report to admin. Organize recognition for students finalizing postsecondary plans. Begin pathway and course planning with freshmen/sophomores.
Life Skills & Wellness Service for Success: Graduation Hours Reminder Hallway Peer Check-ins: Supporting Each Other During Testing Calm Check-ins: Stress Management Support During State Testing	High- LSW A: Students will assess their personal strengths, limitations, values, and interests to set meaningful academic and career goals. High- LSW B: Students will build and sustain healthy relationships through effective communication, empathy, and conflict-resolution High- LSW C: Students will develop the ability to persist through challenges, adapt to change, and maintain a positive outlook in pursuit of	Remind students about opportunities to earn community service hours toward graduation. Promote positive peer interactions through hallway check-ins focused on peer support and communication, especially during testing season. Offer brief stress-management conversations or share calming techniques with students individually or in passing to help them manage state testing anxiety.

May

*ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
Share monthly counseling focus in the school newsletter Year-End Data Review Transition Planning Meetings Summer Jobs and service Post-Test Reflection & Stress Check-ins End-of-Year Course Planning Chats Participate in MTSS/RTI meetings to analyze current academic and behavioral trends and contribute to data-	(3) School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (2) Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (4) Consultation, Collaboration, and Coordination. Effective school counselors utilize multiple means of communication to promote the (7) Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors (5) Counseling Services. Effective school counselors provide direct and indirect services that support the safety, mental health, and well-being of (6) Academic Advising and Planning. Effective school counselors cultivate a caring, rigorous, and supportive school community that promotes the (2) Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling	"Test Smart, Stress Less" It's testing season! Eat something, sleep enough, and show up ready. You've been learning all year - now it's your chance to show what you know. You've got Analyze academic and behavioral data to identify trends and plan next steps. Meet with teachers to discuss student support needs for the upcoming school year. Check in with students about summer jobs, volunteering/ community service. Provide encouragement or point them to upcoming opportunities. Engage students in check-ins about EOC, AP, and Final testing. Provide tips for stress management and emotional recovery. Speak with students during lunch about options like FLYS courses, dual enrollment, or summer enrichment programs. Help them think ahead about how to stay on track and enrich Counselors participate in MTSS/RTI to review student performance data (D&F Report) and collaborate on appropriate supports or referrals.
College & Career Readiness College Signing Day Year-end reporting Workforce readiness prep	(3) School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that (2) Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (7) Career Development and Postsecondary Planning. Effective school counselors provide opportunities for all students to develop the behaviors	Celebrate student commitments with a signing event. Prepare a final report on FAFSA, scholarships, and postsecondary outcomes. Provide students with resources for immediate employment, including resume and interview prep.
Life Skills & Wellness "Future Plans" Hallway Check-ins "Positive Shout-Out" Quick Coping Tips	High-LSW A. Students will assess their personal strengths, limitations, values, and interests to set meaningful academic and career goals. High-LSW B. Students will build and sustain healthy relationships through effective communication, empathy, and conflict-resolution High-LSW C. Students will develop the ability to persist through challenges, adapt to change, and maintain a positive outlook in pursuit of	Encourage students to explore academic or enrichment opportunities for the summer and beyond. Promote kindness and peer recognition, encouraging students to reflect on and express appreciation for positive support systems. Support students' ability to manage stress and maintain a calm, focused mindset during exam season.

June

*ACTIVITY	DOMAIN/STANDARD	DESCRIPTION
ASCP Closeout Share monthly counseling focus in the school newsletter	(2). Data-Driven Planning. Effective school counselors utilize resources including available school data to guide decision making and counseling (3). School Counseling Program. Effective school counselors develop, implement, and evaluate programs that cultivate a school environment that	ASCP Closeout "Make Summer Count (Without Stressing)!" Summer's here - enjoy it! Whether it's a job, volunteering, reading something cool, or learning a new skill, a little effort now can make
College & Career Readiness ASCP Closeout		ASCP Closeout
Life Skills & Wellness ASCP Closeout		ASCP Closeout