

This is located in our guidance area. It is the most high-traffic area in the school. Parents enter here for registration, conferences, and other meetings with school personnel. On the tables we have different information for parents, ranging from SAF/SAC/PTSA flyers to course selection guides to community resources.