

We communicate with parents digitally via weekly emails, website continuously updated. In the office, a high traffic area, we have on-going announcements on the television as well as flyers and informational pamphlets available. PTO Informational area is also displayed in the office.

