I. Welcome/Call to Order

- Mr. González called the meeting to order at 5:03.

II. Principal's Report

- Mr. Garranchan mentioned that we have begun state testing and we have started strong.
- The state writing exam was last month in April.
- Today Nova started 6th grade ELA Reading, and it looks like we did really good in reading.
- Tomorrow will be 6th grade math
- Next week 7th and 8th grade students will take the ELA Reading and Math state exams.
- Also, Biology, Algebra, and Geometry will take the state EOC exams next week.
- Nova pre-law will be traveling to D.C. for the “We the people” national championship. Students leave on May 13th.
- There was nothing else to discuss, so Mr. Garranchan started with next year’s school budget.

III. New Business

a. Principle to present the '26 – '27 school budget

- Mr. Garranchan presented next year’s school budget to SAC.
- Mr. Garranchan started off by letting the members know that this was just a projection and not the actual budget.
- The actual budget may increase or decrease based on the number of students who report
- Enrollment projections for next year are roughly 1,287.82 students.
- Core teachers/sections for next year

 - May 4th
 - Dates will be voted on and ratified during the September meeting.
- e. Rough draft creation for next year's meeting, time, and location
- Members decided to keep SAC meetings where they are in room 701 (LTR) instead of the media center.

- SAC meeting time will remain the same at 5pm.
- This year's members that will be leaving will try to help find either incoming or existing parents to help fill the vacancies of SAC members and help increase membership.

f. Sesir Report

- Mr. González went over the last update Sesir report.
- No members had any questions regarding the report.

g. Q & A

- Members asked questions throughout the entire meeting.
- Dr. Wilson asked if her community partners go right after the Principal's Report.
- Mr. González stated that per district policy, that the order for which the SAC agenda needed to would be the following:
 - Principal's Report, New Business – Voting or No Voting, and then Community partners and/or announcements.
 - Mr. Garranchan stated that any SAC meeting that does not deal with voting, he will allow the school/community partners to go right after the Principal's Report.
