b. SAC Bi-Laws & Approval

c. SAF Bi-Laws & Approval

Both the SAC and SAF By-Laws were handed out and went through. Starting with article III, we discussed that the term limit for each member will be for the school year and we will have to vote at the beginning of each school year. We discussed subsection number 4 regarding where else we could advertise our SAC/SAF meeting besides the school's website. We went over article IV (Officers) and determined to have one SAC chair, new officers would be elected during our September meeting, and the installation of new officers would be done during our first meeting. SAC by laws were ratified on September 1st and Amended on September 1st as well. SAF By-Laws were also gone through, and no changes were made and the SAF By-Laws were adopted on September 1st.

All members voted on both By-Laws adoption and ratification by motion from Ms. Santori and a second from Mr. Garranchan. All members voting unanimously (24 ayes and 0 nays).

d. '26 – '27 Parent Compact Letter

Mr. González handed out this year's parent compact letter to have the parents read over it and make any recommendations or revisions that they wanted to see for the upcoming school year. This year, the parents made no revisions and ratified the compact letter only amending the dates to reflect this year.

A motion was made by Sinnan and seconded by Ms. Regan to approve this year's parent compact. The compact passed unanimously.

e. SESIR Report for last year

Mr. González reviewed last year's final total of the SESIR report for Nova Middle School. Mr. González explained what the SESIR report was and were the report could be found. He also stated that for the next meeting, He would also include the website to the SESIR report to make it easier for parents to look up.

f. Q & A

Questions were asked as the meeting went through, so by the time the end of the meeting approached, there really were no extra questions to be asked.
