Principal's Updates shared by Ms. O'Neal

- End of Year Assessments
  - Testing dates have started to be placed on the calendar along with End of Year activities; Dates will continue to be added.
  - FAST PM 3 Kicked off this week with Kindergarten and we are trending in the right direction.
  - Faculty meetings were also held earlier this month to discuss securing the testing environment and providing updates for testing environments and scripting.
  - Field Trips: As an incentive for 5th grade, the Gabby Bus and Ceramics on Wheels will be coming out to school for in-house field trips.
  - ELO camps will continue to take place for specific content areas in Grades 4-8 to extend learning opportunities to enrich student learning until their testing day.
  - School Accountability Fund - The funds may be rolled over, but it has not been confirmed yet. We have placed orders and access to newly purchased and renewed resources will be available for the 1st day of school.
- Schoolwide Instructional Programs & Student Engagement
  - The importance of increasing parent involvement was discussed to better represent the diverse cultures within the school community. Parents and community members were encouraged to participate following completion of the district vetting process.
- Popcorn Fundraiser:

Will be announced and directions will be given to everyone. Both staff and students can participate in the sales. The proceeds will go to the general school funds.

- Safety, Discipline, and SESIR Report
  - SESIR data was reviewed:
    - November: Two incidents reported
    - December: Alcohol and physical attack incidents
    - January: Zero incidents reported
    - February: 5 (fighting/ incidents reported)
    - March: 5 offenses
  - The administration shared that school safety data compares favorably with other districts. The effectiveness of the “See Something, Say Something” initiative was reinforced. Parents were reminded of the importance of monitoring student social media use.

- School Accountability Funds
  - The current School Accountability Fund balance is *pending*.
