VII. 2026–2027 Budget Presentation

Principal Most provided a comprehensive overview of the projected budget, noting significant district-wide challenges.

- Enrollment & FTE: Projected FTE for 2026–2027 is 1,404, a decrease of approximately 252.5 FTE from the current year. The school has seen a loss of roughly 500 students over the last seven years.

- Personnel Impacts: Projected loss of approximately 10 teaching positions based on FTE reduction.
- Financial Allocations: Instructional allocation is down by roughly $350,000.
- Cuts are expected in clerical, custodial, and potentially security staff due to formula changes.
- Program Outlook: No whole programs (ELMA, JROTC, etc.) are currently slated for removal, though the number of sections for specific classes will decrease.
- The "PASS" (ESE) program is currently expected to be maintained.
- Acceleration Success: Principal Most announced that the Class of 2026 has already achieved an 80% acceleration rate, an 18-point increase from the previous year and the largest gain in the district.

VIII. Principal's Report

- April 2026: 262 referrals for the month of April. (83 cell phones, 55 skipping), 22 SESIR Level (6 Tobacco vapes, 3 THC vapes, 4 simple battery, 4 fights, 1 substantiated bullying, 1 razor, 1 pepper spray)
- Graduation Rehearsal & Senior Breakfast: Scheduled for May 27.
