III. North Region Updates

Academic Update:

- PM2 academic data is nearly equivalent to last year's PM3 (end-of-year) results, reflecting strong academic progress.

IV. Student Services Department — Ms. Jill Mastall

Director, Coordinated Student Health Services | (754) 321-1575

Hazel Health (Telehealth Services)

- District agreement began in 2021 and expires in 2026.
- Hazel Health provides telehealth services, not intended to replace school nurses.
- Contract has been free for five years to build market presence in Florida. Hazel Health is now proposing renewal with fees, including physical and mental health services.

Billing & Insurance:

- No student is turned away for lack of insurance.
- Insurance is billed only if voluntarily provided.
- District has received limited reports of families receiving bills and is investigating.
- Hazel does not access insurance information without parent consent.

● Mandated Health Screenings

- Required screenings:
 - Vision: All grades
 - Hearing: All except 3rd
 - BMI: All except Kindergarten
 - Scoliosis: 6th grade

- Parents must opt out per state law.
- Consent for school clinics is separate from Hazel Health.

V. Exceptional Student Education (ESE) — Stephanie Acosta Castro

- District employs 130 school psychologists.
- Current caseloads meet compliance requirements, though additional staffing would be beneficial.
- 10–12 vacancies currently (exact count pending).

Evaluation Timelines & Procedures

- Parent consent starts the legal timeline.
- Assessments must be completed within 60 days.
- Reevaluations allowed up to 90 days.
- District submits monthly compliance reports to the state.

Assessment Data

- 2,910 total evaluations (PreK–12).
- PreK Assessment Center:
 - 519 completed
 - 750 in progress / projected for year-end
- Goal is single-day testing to minimize parent work absences.

Parent Rights

A. Independent evaluations may be requested at district expense if parents disagree with findings.
