To 2981_ALL_STAFF_GG <2981_ALL_STAFF_GG@browardschools.com>

Good morning,

As you know we are an "A" school again this year! Woohoo!

So, what does this mean?

As far as we know, funds are supposed to be distributed to districts around the 14th. I have a county SAC meeting this week. If they are making any changes to the distribution I should find out at the meeting and will let you know as soon as possible.

As of now the statute remains in place that all decisions/voting have to be made by February 1st.

We want to start the discussions about proposals that staff members would like to see on the ballot.

For reference, last year our amount was about $104,000. This year the amount awarded is $59,800 (yes it is a big difference).

Our next school SAC meeting is this coming Monday, November 17th. All are welcome to attend.

Please meet with your teams and discuss proposals you would like to see.

At this meeting, we are hoping to get the ball rolling and look at proposals submitted by the staff to be put on the ballot. If there are proposals that you would like presented to the committee, please send them to me or you can attend the meeting and share it then (although it's easier if you send to me ahead of time).

Please let me know if you have any questions.

SAC Agenda November 17 2025 (1).pdf;

Good evening,

Our next Student Advisory Council (SAC) meeting will be taking place on Monday, November 17th at 2:15 in the Media Center.

*Please make every attempt to be at this meeting as we will be discussing important information.

Our school has been awarded the Florida School Recognition Program (A+ Funds) for excellence in student achievement and school performance during the 2024-2025 school year.

I am attaching our tentative agenda.

At this meeting, a priority will be drafting proposals on how to allocate these funds. We can only approve proposals for the ballot if we meet quorum. Staff will then vote on the options we choose. Let me know if you will not be able to make the meeting.

Looking forward to seeing everyone next week.
