"The minutes from our previous meeting on December 8 were reviewed for any corrections. No corrections were noted .

- IV. "Hearing no corrections, the minutes stand approved as presented."

- V. The Chair presented our current school funds, which are as follows:

- VI. Accountability Fund = $1180.00

VII. School Recognition Fund

VIII. Supplies-$6,264.12

IX. Bonuses-$52,754.00

Regarding the bonuses-*The A+ ballot and voting were approved by the district and we have submitted all the paperwork for the A+ Bonus payment

X. Next, We will have the Principal's Report, presented by Assistant Principal Ms. Doval

Ms. Doval: Redefining update –All schools west of the 75 will be relocated to Silver Trail Middle starting next year. Students will be allowed to apply for reassignment, but parents will be responsible for transportation.

*It has been proposed that Walter C. Young will become a part of Flanagan 6-12 , beginning in the 27-28 school year.

*We will be placed on the redefining list again to establish for next year to finalize the future plans for the school.

*Walter C. Young will be returning to a straight 6 schedule for the next school year. Teachers were required to vote whether or not to remain on block and the results changed us back to 6 periods for the new year.

*Computers will be distributed to students who applied for computers for home use.

XI. G for the good of the group

*It was proposed by Dr. Barsony that we should maintain Walter C. Young on the Flanagan Campus instead of merging. A point that can be brought up in the redefining meeting.

*Dr. Barsony also brought up concern over the straight 6 schedule effect on the dual language students. It was addressed by Ms. Doval , who stated that we have had this schedule longer that we have been on block and we will make it work

XI. Announcements:

Our SAF Chair Miguel Suarez attended the last district meeting and provided the minutes , also available in the back. A few highlights are the Abilities night will be held at 1/29/2026 at the Quest Center in Hollywood

Also several changes are coming to the Food and Nutrition menu for the new school year.

The District is also introducing a Entrepreneur Initiative which gives students several opportunities to learn about entrepreneurship.
