Principal's Report

- Silver Ridge has once again earned an A school rating!
 - Instructional focus this year will be on the lowest 25th percentile in math.
 - We are the only elementary school in the district with 100% of staff reading certified.
 - New this year: Kid of Character Ceremony – parents of recognized students will be invited.
 - Student of the Month will be recognized by the Town of Davie.
 - Four I-Zone meetings are scheduled this year.
 - Students will have access to i-Ready and Reflex Math at home.
 - Staff have been issued Centegix badges to quickly call for help in emergencies.

Additional Comments

- Nadia shared notes from a recent ACE meeting:
 - Inner Explorer provides videos to support student mental health.
 - Question raised: Do we have an inclusion champion?
 - Mr. Vetter confirmed: Yes, Erica Doyle works with teachers to provide inclusion support.
 - Redefining Schools initiative may result in school closures, consolidations into K–12 centers, and resource centers.
 - Listeners Program is currently in the legal process to return to schools. The program connects trained individuals with children who need someone to talk to.
