specialized training for ESE bus attendants, particularly those interacting with non-verbal students or students with behavioral challenges. This training helps attendants better understand and support the children they work with.

- Cameras in ESE Classrooms - A major initiative right now involves cameras in self-contained ESE classrooms. From 2021 to 2024, Broward participated in a state-run pilot program. Parents of students in ESE self-contained classrooms could request a camera in the classroom. Cameras record audio and video, but there is no live streaming and no monitoring. Footage can only be accessed if a parent or staff member reports a concern, such as unexplained injuries or incidents involving non-verbal students. The pilot program ended, and ESE Advisory recommended that Broward continue it independently, and the district approved it. Challenge: Parent Bill of Rights requires written consent from every parent in a classroom before a camera can be activated. Previously, cameras could be installed automatically, but now staff must collect forms from every parent. This has caused delays.
Q: Is there a specific criteria for which classrooms can have cameras?

A: Cameras are only allowed in self-contained ESE classrooms — clusters for autism, emotional/behavioral disabilities, intellectual disabilities, or SVE classes.

Q: For the cameras in ESE classrooms, how long is footage stored?

A: 30 days.

Q: Could the storage period be extended? Asked because sometimes parents become aware of a repeated or ongoing issue and are only able to view the previous 30 days.

A: ESE advocated for 90 days, but the district's standard for security cameras is 30 days. While server capacity could be expanded, the cost is a factor. Additionally, data from the state pilot program showed that all but one request for footage was made within 30 days. The School Board discussed extending storage but chose to maintain the 30-day standard for now.

- FOCUS is the district's student information system, implemented last school year to replace an outdated platform. FOCUS allows: Real-time grade updates. Viewing schedules, test scores, attendance, and other data. Access to announcements and upcoming events.
- To use FOCUS, parents must create a Parent Portal account. All resources and guides are available at browardschools.com/focus.
 - Setting Up a Parent Portal Account:
 1. Go to the Parent Portal section on the FOCUS website.
 2. Choose one of the following: Create a new account (if you don't already have one). Link your child to an existing account.
 3. Enter required information, which must match exactly what is in the school system, including: Parent name and email, Student name, Student ID number, and Student date of birth. If the information doesn't match, the system won't connect the parent to the student.Important note for district employees:
Teachers cannot use their district email address for Parent Portal access. A personal email (e.g., Gmail) must be used instead.

- School Lunches - Free school lunch ended on Monday September 22. SAF Chairs were asked to pay attention to how students
