Collaboration and Expectation

The School Advisory Forum (SAF) continues to serve as a vital link between families, staff, and the community. Through ongoing collaboration, SAF members work closely with SAC to support school improvement goals, strengthen family engagement, and advocate for resources that enhance student success.

Recent collaboration efforts include sharing input on instructional priorities, reviewing parent and student feedback, and coordinating support for upcoming school and community events. The SAF's partnership ensures that every stakeholder's voice is heard and contributes to creating a supportive, high-achieving learning environment.

Thurgood Marshall Elementary School next steps include maintaining consistent communication between committees, increasing parent participation, and aligning future initiatives with school improvement priorities.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:00pm
