VI. Innovative Learning Commons Proposal

- Mrs. Green – Chairperson for the Electives Department
- Mrs. Mccoy – Chairperson for the Science Department
- Mrs. Carter – Chairperson for the Reading / Language Arts Department

- Mrs. Green, Mrs. McCoy Mrs. Carter brought to the committee a proposal to request SAC funds to be used to purchase a variety of items designed to enhance/enrich learning and to be used as incentives to promote student engagement. After the presentation, the presenters responded to a few questions (ex. A member inquired as to how the incentive items would be used specifically). Mr. Tienjaroonkul also shared with the committee that items were specifically chosen to be used over many years without having to be replenished. The committee then reviewed the items requested and the total cost. Upon review, a discrepancy was discovered on line five, which turned out to be a transposition of numbers Once discovered, the error was corrected. Ensuing discussions recommended additional adjustments by increasing or decreasing the numbers of some items to better suit the needs of the students.

At 5:03 p.m., Mrs. Wagner moved to approve the proposal, with changes specifying that funds be allocated to the items discussed, not to exceed $21,491. The motion was seconded by Mr. Greetham at 5:03 p.m.

Voting results on the final proposal with all changes were as follows:
