4. Principal Report

a. Diversity Committee will be visiting Sawgrass. Will be looking at all things Sawgrass to make sure we are working within the equity of the district.

b. Sawgrass earned an A in the 25-26 school year; we are 11 out of 164 elementary schools. Sawgrass is in the 93 percentile, approximately in the top 7% of all 1788 elementary schools evaluated statewide.

c. PM1 was completed. This is baseline data. Based on early scores in PM1 scores are already ahead of what they were last year.

d. ELOP clubs after school will be starting on October 26th. Mondays after school from 2-3:15pm for 10 weeks. Need 8 students in each club. Examples: Lego, coding, kindness, athletics. $100 for the 10 sessions. Registration is in the e-store. Mrs. Ather will be overseeing clubs.

5. Old Business

6. New Business

a. After care report

i Met with before and after school care department (BASC). Notified them we are looking for another provider for our after-care program, due to inability to grow the program based on staffing issue. Ratio is 1 to 20, and it has become a challenge to find staff.

ii We are contacting other agencies other schools are using to get some references and reviews.

iii Interest in Camp Wanna Do, ASP, and YMCA. These three appear to be the best fit for Sawgrass at this time.

b. Ratify SAF Bylaws

i Motion to ratify Bylaws Katherine Serrano

ii Second the motion by Brandy Clemons

iii Bylaws ratified unanimous consent

7. PTA Announcements

a. PTA is working on increasing enrollment as well as many fall events. Details to follow in PTA meeting.

8. SAF Report

a. Continue the discussion of redefining schools

9. Adjournments

a. Meeting adjourned at 8:27 am next meeting is October 14, 2026 at 5:30 pm in the Media Center
