- Principals Welcome and Updates:
 - The first couple weeks have gone well so far we had our first open house was last week and had a great turn out. Our 2nd one is later this week.
 - Marquee updates: We are making progress and we are stuck in permitting.
 - Reduction in technology in K-1, they are in the process of surveying the teachers now and getting input. You are going to as a parent to see more hands on, centers, and paper pencil.
 - Declining in enrollment: We are not a school to be tagged to close but we are a conversation piece attached to Coral Springs Elementary closing. They only have 296 students, and we will get half of those students if that closure happens according to the proposal that was out last week. Forrest Glen Middle is also projected to close the feeder elementary schools would become K-6 and the high school would become 7-12.
 - Promoting enrollment here at Eagle Ridge, following us on Instagram and sharing our page, growing our followers and highlighting all the great things that we all do here at our school.
 - Upcoming events: Book fair week of September 14th, the 16th is parent night. This Friday is Pelican night, the class with the most representation will get free snowballs for their class the next month.

▪ Data Updates:

- Our school grade went up from 66-71 total points. They are raising the points to be an A to 65, which is a bit harder to do.
