We will have fewer choice seats than in the past. We are leveling out to be on par with surrounding schools. We will be at 100% capacity – 2800 students, about 100 less than this year. Class size for high school will likely go up. The ability to budget for next year is on hold. We have to wait for state budget. Staff at closed schools will be shifted to other schools. Testing starts soon for end of year exams (AP, AICE, etc). A list of dates for Seniors end of year activities has been sent out. Our graduation rate is at 98%. acceleration rate went from 78% to 91%. We are on track to be an A school again. We are working on cracking down on AI usage. The state plans to roll out tools to help with this.
- PTSO Report-Final pizza sales will be in April. It is really helping the PTSO budget. Senior signs are going on sale April 1st and will be $40. Pizza sales will be April 15th and the 29th. Some partner banners will be going up on the fence soon.

The money will likely not be given next year. Ms. Newell asked could we earmark some of the SAC money for detention. Money needs to be spent by next year. Whatever is not spent will be taken. Dr. Kaplan has pointed out that the state has come down hard on Districts because "we have all this money and you did not spend all of it".
