- Old Business
- New Business-1142 out of 1150 for students participating in the annual survey. Mrs. Brissett said that number is not correct. The counting that is being reported has been frozen. 108 staff members did the survey. 390 parents needed. We have 219 did it. We did not meet the threshold for parental participation in the survey.
- Adjournment

*Followed by SAF meeting.

Mrs. Morst gave the SAF report. 90% of referendum money will go to school-based employees. 10% will be at superintendent's discretion for mental health and safety. It had originally been 75%-25%. Going forward, administration and School Board people who don't deal with students will not be getting any of the money. The money we gave from the last referendum cannot be taken back because the School Board passed the old funding formula. Allen Strauss will be new North Area Superintendent.

Carrie Forsyth made a motion to table elections for SAC/SAF till the first Fall meeting. Carole Brown seconded. The motion passed unanimously.
